FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Parent,

Mid-year examination: We are at the last phase of our Midyear examinations week and are pleased with how the examinations progressed. If a learner is absent for examination, the learner should provide a doctor's note or relevant evidence to ensure that arrangements are made to write the missed exam.

Grade 12 learners and parents meeting changes:

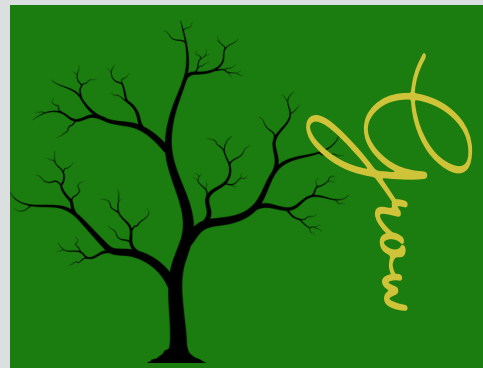

Grade 12 parents and learners' meeting will be on Monday, 19 June 2023 at 18:00. We encourage all our grade 12 parents and learners to attend the meeting as important information will be shared and or discussed.

Youth day career exhibition: Considering June 16 celebration, the school has been invited to participate in youth ablaze career exhibition to commemorate this important milestone in our democracy. See attached flyer for information. We encourage our learners to attend the exhibition to learn more about careers. On a different note, I encourage parents to share their understanding of this important day in our history calendar with learners.

DISCIPLINE

Hoërskool Hercules' code of conduct is based on the following:

Discipline and order are the cornerstone of a successful society.

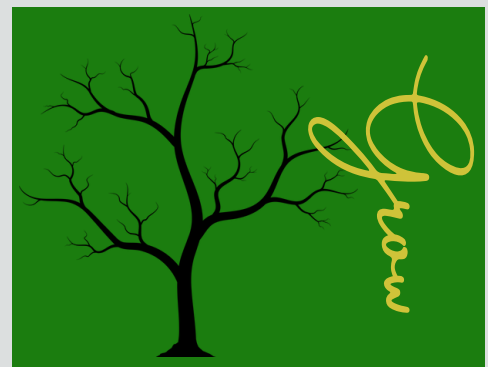

Discipline must be given top priority.

Implementation of sanctions takes place according to the learner code of conduct and with the full cooperation and knowledge of the parents.

The parents' home and school serve the same purpose, namely the education of the child so that he/she can be guided to proper maturity.

*Decency is judged by our actions, not our words.
Abdulazeez Henry Musa*

Mutual respect and esteem between all parties is essential and a culture of tolerance is an important starting point.

The learner code of conduct is subject to the Constitution of South Africa 1996 (Act no 108 of 1996) and the SA Schools Act of 1996 (Act no 84 of 1996).

The school strives to behave in a disciplined manner.

The best discipline is self-discipline and the cooperation of every learner, parent and teacher is kindly requested.

Every learner is expected to maintain a high moral and ethical standard of action, behaviour and language use.

Teachers' affairs

Small acts of decency ripple in ways we could never imagine.
Cory Booker

Our lovely cleaning ladies: Maseline and Rumbi joined in the fun.

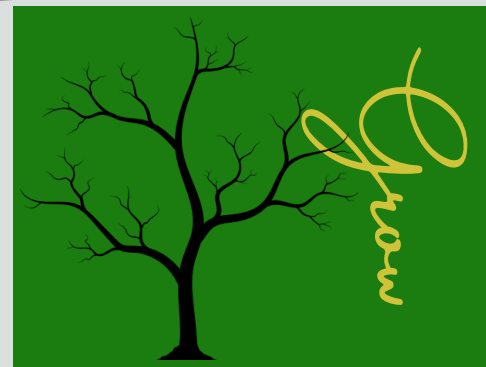

Our admin ladies love to play along, you looked super cool.

When the school is empty and the learners write exams, the teachers become playful. In the true spirit of Sarafina, the onnies celebrate Youth Day with their own school clothes from years ago (the ones that still fit into them) or borrowed school clothes from learners.

Happy Youth Day, Hercies!

*Silence is not weakness and decency is not pride.
Arthur Machen*
